2. Why are you interested in the Meadow Lark Farm Dinners Internship?
3. What previous experience do you have that might be applicable to this internship? Have you worked with a tightly-knit group for a prolonged period of time? Please elaborate.

5. How would you characterize the role food plays in your life, and what experiences have shaped this relationship?
6. Describe a memorable dining experience—real or imagined.

7. Whom, in the world of food, do you admire most, and why?
8. We serve local sustainably-raised meat at most farm dinners. What is your opinion about raising animals for meat?
9. Do you have any allergies, food restrictions, physical limitations or phobias that might affect your ability to perform all internship duties as described on our website?

13. We hope to find interns who can make a commitment for the entire season, arriving in Boulder in time for our June 28 start date, and staying through September 25 (our final clean-up day). Are there any notes/comments/restrictions you'd like to provide regarding your schedule?
14. Now for the fun part—please channel your most artistic self to create an original art piece that communicates some aspect of your relationship with food. Draw upon whatever media you'd like. You can create a virtual piece, or a physical work—but you may not physically mail something to our address! Instead, physical works must be photographed or represented in some other digital format. You must be able to make your creations sendable as electronic attachments or viewable through a web link. Most importantly—have fun with it!

Please convert your completed application to a pdf, save it beginning with your surname (for example, Miller-MLFD.pdf) and email it, along with a cover letter and your resume, to info@farmdinners.com.

Thank you!
